Catalog Year: 2013-2014

The Breadth Requirement may be met by completing one of the following:

1. A second Foreign Language Emphasis;
2. A minor in another foreign language offered by the Department;

Appropriate courses offered by other departments (e.g. History of Latin America) can fulfill the breadth requirement with the prior approval of the UG advisor.

Other requirements and regulations:

- A capstone course is required for the completion of the BA in Foreign Languages.
- Higher-level courses may be substituted for lower-level coursework, eg. a 300-level class can be taken instead of a 200-level class. A minimum of two 400-level courses is required for each Emphasis in addition to the Capstone, 499.
- A 2.0 grade-point-average in Foreign Languages courses is required for graduation.
- Study-abroad is strongly recommended for all majors and minors in Foreign Languages, but not required for degree completion.
- French 435 does not count toward the major in Foreign Languages.
- Native speakers studying their own languages will complete a minimum of 21 credit hours in courses numbered 300 and above, but normally not including 315 or 325, and they will complete the breadth requirement. A native speaker is defined as a person who speaks the target language fluently and who has completed formal schooling through the secondary school level, or equivalent, in the target language.
- Certain anchor, platform, and cluster courses may be counted toward the language major, to be determined through consultation with the course instructor and the foreign language chair.
